Congratulations
to the Class of 2024!

6 seniors complete New Vision program

Central Square School District was represented well at the 2024 New Vision Ceremony, with six seniors completing the Allied Health program.

The program is designed for high school seniors to participate in classroom instruction along with career-related experiences such as clinical rotations in local healthcare settings.

PVM High School seniors completing the program in 2023-24 included Mea Coppola, Olivia Domachowske, Catherine Hayes, Clair Hayes, Addison Kelly and Olivia Ruzekowicz.

Two Central Square seniors honored at P-TECH ceremony

Two CSSD graduates recently were honored for completing the high school portion of P-TECH at their senior ceremony. Both William Appleton and Andrew Schlueter were celebrated during the ceremony and will complete their fifth and sixth year of the P-TECH program at Onondaga Community College. For more information on the P-TECH program via CiTi, visit citiboces.org/ptech.

Sherman recognized for service as student BOE member

Senior Sofia Sherman served as the Board of Education student representative for the 2023-24 school year. On top of attending Board of Education meetings and providing input, she also acted as a voice on behalf of the student population, which provided valuable insight on behalf of the student body which she represented. On behalf of the entire Central Square School District, thank you for your dedication and service to our entire CSSD community.

Paul V. Moore HS celebrates outstanding senior musicians

A total of 13 seniors from Paul V. Moore High School were recognized for their dedicated contributions to the district's music program through scholarships, commendations and accolades during the final concerts of the 2023-24 school year.

The recognized seniors include Sophia Arcuri, Megan Elderbroom, Meghan Farrell, Conner Houghmaster, Grace Hayes, Faith Hutnik, Nicholas Lennox, Jackson Lopez, Zach Jessie, Cuyler Penrod, Gabriella Rabbia, Cadence Rock and Elliott White. Many of these students participated actively in both the chorus and band programs.

Music educators Ron Haldeman, Veronica Mainville and Mark Woods praised the student musicians for their unwavering commitment to the CSSD band program, leadership they brought and enthusiasm overall for music.

"The scholarships were announced at the student's final concert, which publicly recognized them for their talents, abilities, dedication and hard work," said Haldeman. "The opportunity to celebrate deserving students for their accomplishments is made possible by private donors, and by the Central Square Music Booster organization who help fund the scholarships."

A collective value of $3,100 was awarded to the class of 2024 seniors, and they were also recognized in the commencement program.

"We want to wish the senior class of 2024 the very best of success as you pursue your hopes and dreams," Haldeman added.

$100K+ awarded in scholarships to Class of 2024

In early June, members of our community came together to celebrate the CSSD Class of 2024 at the senior awards ceremony in the Paul V. Moore High School Auditorium. In total, more than $100,000 in scholarships were awarded to these exemplary scholars. We appreciate the community support and all those who awarded scholarships to our students — thank you for your generosity.

Redhawk excellence honored at 2024 Senior Athletic Awards

The Central Square School District held its 2024 Senior Athletic Awards in early June, honoring more than a dozen outgoing seniors for years of dedication on and off the field.

In addition to triumphs on the field, the June 6 ceremony celebrated student-athletes for their strong character, leadership traits, community involvement and work in the classroom.

CSSD Director of Health, Physical Education & Athletics Jamie Grimshaw opened the ceremony by welcoming the crowd of families, mentors and friends. He congratulated the student-athletes on outstanding careers and years of dedication to their Redhawk sports programs.

Bradon Wolfe and Natalie Bush were presented with Central Square's Most Outstanding Athlete Awards, the final award given out. Wolfe and Natalie were honored as the district's Section III Scholar Athletes.

Longtime district coaches Kevin Brazell (varsity girls basketball) and Dale Greabell (varsity boys and girls golf) were recognized for their years of service to Redhawk athletics as they are set to retire.

Class of 2024 Top 5 students honored

Paul V. Moore High School has honored its top 5 students in the class of 2024, a group officials touted as ambitious, hardworking students but also tremendous members of their communities.

Truman Remenicky earned valedictorian status, Arieana Fenton was honored as salutatorian, Kate Hayes was named the laureate (third in class), Sofia Sherman was given superintendent's honors (fourth) and Ian Attle and Thomas Hogeboon received co-principal's honors (tied for fifth).

"This is a wonderful group of dedicated students," said Dr. Heidi Sweeney, Executive Principal at Paul V. Moore High School. "They are civic-minded, caring and have great personalities. We are so proud of them!"

Below is a little more information on each honoree.

TRUMAN REMENICKY, VALEDICTORIAN

Marketing and Consumer Insights, minoring in Business Law & Ethics.

Career goals: I plan on pursuing a career in international marketing. Eventually I would like to start my own business.

Advice: Take the time to appreciate the journey. Although it may be scary or nerve-wracking, we will be all the better for it.

KATE HAYES, LAUREATE

Parents: Jodi Hayes & Ed Hayes

Elementary: Millard Hawk Elementary

Extracurriculars: Varsity Tennis, National Honor Society

Future plans: Playing Tennis and majoring in Biology at SUNY Oswego

Career goals: Pursue a career in optometry

Advice: Try to keep up with schoolwork so that you can have fun out of school and not have to worry about it. Try to get involved in sports, clubs and extracurriculars so you can make lifelong friends and connections.

SOFIA SHERMAN, SUPERINTENDENT'S HONORS

Parents: Angela & Ken Sherman

Elementary: CSI

Extracurriculars: Class Officer – Secretary, National Honor Society President, JV/Varsity Volleyball Captain, DECA, Student Rep. on Board of Education and East Ave. Deli/Sundae's Best employee

Future plans: Attending University at Albany for Biology

Career goals: Physician's Assistant specializing in Dermatology

Advice: Philippians 4:13 – I can do all things through Him who strengthens me.

IAN ATTLE, CO-PRINCIPAL'S HONORS

Shoutout: A nameless judge in Oswego who inspired me and used to be my attorney

Elementary: Millard Hawk/CSI

Extracurriculars: DECA, District Committee IT Member, Student Peer Tutor (Business Law), Internship Hours 128, Volunteer Hours 183, Seal of Civic Readiness, Seal of CDOS, NYS Business/Marketing Honor Society, High Honor Roll, OCAY League

Future plans: University at Buffalo to obtain BA in Law, then become a Juris Doctor (Still debating law school, but likely UB or Syracuse)

Career goals: District Attorney is my goal after college but I would gladly accept being a judge

Advice: "Dr. Randy Pausch stated, 'Tenacity is the greatest virtue.' I held onto this belief for the longest time as I have solidified my love for law, rooted in love for my community. A great judge that is currently in Oswego that used to be my attorney always provided me with the hope and motivation when times got difficult. Remember to keep your eyes on the prize ahead. I am rooting for you."
–Your future District Attorney, Ian Attle

THOMAS HOGEBOON, CO-PRINCIPAL'S HONORS

Thomas completed his senior year of high school while concurrently attending his freshman year at Clarkson University. We are so proud of him for this!

600-plus combined years of service honored at CSSD retiree ceremony

The Central Square School District honored more than two dozen employees who, combined, have served hundreds of thousands of hours and generations of students over the years.

In total, 26 employees were recognized during the June Board of Education meeting with those present receiving a heartfelt thanks from the board, district administrators, fellow colleagues and family in the audience.

All employees, including those not in attendance, were honored and acknowledged for their service along with personal stories and kind accolades showcasing their time and dedication to CSSD. The 26 employees totaled 611-plus years of service to the Central Square School District and students.

Central Square Superintendent Thomas J. Colabufo offered his appreciation for the employees' dedication to the district and for their efforts throughout the years. The event was held June 3 in the Paul V. Moore High School Cafeteria with cake served afterward.

Below is a list by department and school of the retirees who were honored to close out the 2023-24 school year.
